Classic Mojito

Havana is the birthplace of the Mojito. One story traces the Mojito to a similar 16th century drink known as "El Draque", after Sir Francis Drake used a similar potion as a remedy on board his ships.

Caipirinha

The Caipirinha means "little peasant girl". It is one of the great classic cocktails of the world and the national drink of Brazil. With its principal ingredient-cachaça - the drink is protected by law as the national patrimony of Brazil. The historian from Paraty Diuner Mello discovered a document from 1856 which discovered a reference to this cocktail in documents discussing an epidemic of cholera in the area. An alternative story has it that Portuguese slave traders returning to Europe would use limes to prevent scurvy, which they added to the cachaça they'd picked up in Brazil and combined with sugar for sweetness.

Legend has it that the Cuba Libre, was first invented in 1900 in Havana, Cuba.
One afternoon, a group of off-duty American soldiers were gathered in a bar in Old Havana. An officer entered the bar and ordered rum and Coca-Cola on ice with a wedge of lime. The captain drank the concoction with such pleasure that his mates ordered the same concoction and the rest is history. They then decided to toast ¡Por Cuba Libre! in celebration of the newly freed Cuba.

OUR TOP GIN SELECTION

Monkey 47 €6.55

The fact it hails from the Black Forest in Germany is not the only thing unique about Monkey 47 Dry Gin it also contains cranberries! Overall, 47 different botanicals go into Monkey 47 (hence the name). The result is a fresh and zesty, award-winning gin that suggests eucalyptus on the nose, lime and juniper on the palate and a citrus and pine finish.

Gin Mare €5.95

The Mediterranean "Gin Mare" is made in a custom designed still. Blended with individual distillations of arbequina olives, thyme, rosemary, basil, cardamom, coriander and ginger berries gathered from their own farms and citrus fruits, left to soak in advance for over a year in special large clay jars.

Beefeater €6.55

Beefeater 24 London Dry Gin is made from a combination of 12 different botanicals. The name 24 comes from how long it takes for the 12 botanicals to blend together, only one night together creates the smooth luxurious flavour of Beefeater 24.

Hendrick's €6.55

Hendricks Gin is made in a bizarre way produced from two different stills then married together using two unconventional botanicals, the Bulgarian Rosa Damascena and cucumbers.

Bombay Sapphire Gin €4.50

Bombay Sapphire Gin has 10 perfectly balanced botanicals. These fresh, 100% natural flavours combine to create a gentle, aromatic taste layered with zesty citrus, delicate nutty oils, rich exotic spices and a hint of sweetness.

Opihr Oriental Spiced Gin €7.50

Opihr is a spicy London dry gin inspired by the ancient spice route. Coriander, turmeric, juniper and hot cracked pepper are just some of its character traits. Pour a glass, add some crisp tonic and enjoy a flavoursome journey of the Orient.

Gordon's Pink Gin Spritz €7.55

Inspired by an original Gordon's recipe from the 1880s, Gordon's Pink is perfectly crafted to balance the refreshing taste of Gordon's with the natural sweetness of raspberries and strawberries, with the tang of redcurrant served up in a unique blushing tone. Made using only natural fruit flavours to guarantee the highest quality real berry taste. We serve the pink gin, with lemonade and topped up with prosecco mixed with seasonal berries.
